MEDIATION HEARINGS ARE SCHEDULED IN PERSON OR REMOTELY VIA ZOOM: Trained mediators will appear in person and remotely to assist you in the mediation process.

REMOTE HEARING INSTRUCTIONS: Appear remotely by using an electronic device with audio and video capabilities. Prepare for your hearing and comply with the following:

1. Download the Zoom application prior to your hearing date. Learn how to log in, change your display name, connect and test your audio, mute/unmute your audio and turn your video off/on.
2. Find a location in your home where you will be uninterrupted by people, pets and noise. Please review the “Courtroom Etiquette When Appearing Remotely” on the Island County District Court webpage (<https://www.islandcountywa.gov/980/Appearing-By-Video>). At the bottom on this page there is also a link (A picture of courtroom No. 1) to login into court by Zoom.
3. Login by going to the bottom of the Island County District Court page – Appearing by Video (<https://www.islandcountywa.gov/980/Appearing-By-Video>) - press on the picture of Courtroom No. 1.
4. Change your display name to your first and last name (required to be admitted to the hearing).
5. Remain on mute until your case is called. Please be patient.

MEDIATION IS MANDATORY: Appearance and participation in mediation is required. If you fail to appear as directed, a judgment may be entered against you for the amount claimed plus filing and service fees.
