

EXHIBIT "A"

16.06.090 - Preliminary short subdivision approval.

...

F. Expiration of preliminary approval.

1. ~~The time limitation for submitting a final short plat for approval shall be the same as the time limitation for submitting a final plat for approval as set forth in ICC 16.06.110.F. Preliminary short subdivision approval shall expire if all requirements for final approval have not been fulfilled and the short plat approved and recorded within five (5) years of the date of the preliminary approval of the proposed project, or the first phase of such project if a project phasing schedule has been approved. Provided that any judicial appeal filed and accepted for review after preliminary approval shall automatically stay the time periods referenced above until a final decision on the appeal is rendered. The above five-year period shall also apply to all pending applications which have been granted preliminary approval as of the effective date of this chapter.~~

F. Expiration of preliminary approval.

1. ~~The time limitation for submitting a final plat for approval shall be the same as set forth in RCW 58.17.140(3). Preliminary subdivision approval shall expire if all requirements for final approval have not been fulfilled and the final plat approved and recorded within five (5) years of the date of the preliminary approval of the proposed project, or the first phase of such project, if a project phasing schedule has been approved. Provided that any judicial appeal filed and accepted for review after preliminary approval shall automatically stay the time periods referenced above until a final decision on the appeal is rendered. The above five-year period shall also apply to all pending applications which have been granted preliminary approval as of the effective date of this chapter.~~

16.06.120 - Application requirements for final approval.

Application for final approval of a short subdivision or subdivision shall be made by submitting the original application together with all requirements as listed below.

A. Application form. . . .

- H. Final map. The final subdivision or short subdivision map shall be drawn based on a site specific survey as specified in section 16.06.110 in permanent black ink on one (1) or more sheets capable of reproduction, eighteen (18) inches by twenty-four (24) inches in size, and bearing the following information (unless specifically waived by the approving authority at the time of preliminary approval):

1. The legal description of the land contained in the land division;

20. If applicable, any and all covenants, conditions, and restrictions intended to appear on the face of the plat or short plat.

...

16.06.170 - Alterations, withdrawals and vacations.

- A. Alterations. Land divisions may be altered in accordance with the following requirements and must meet the requirements of RCW 58.17.215, unless they are boundary line adjustments, lot combinations or boundary line corrections and can more readily and expeditiously be accomplished through the boundary line adjustment or correction process of this chapter:
1. A majority of all affected ownership interests within the originally recorded land division must be a party to the alteration application, or must express written agreement to the proposed alteration, including written agreement to accept ownership of any property, or to transfer or convey ownership of any property, which may be necessary as a result of the alteration. If the original land division was subject to restrictive covenants and the alteration would result in a violation of or require changes to those covenants, all affected ownership interests must agree in writing to terminate or alter the relevant covenants.
 2. Any conditions of approval contained in the original land division that are applicable to the alteration which have been relied upon in subsequent land development or land use planning decisions and which are still applicable at the time of application shall be incorporated in the alteration, unless such conditions are provided by other legal means at the time of approval of the alteration.
 3. In addition to notice requirements in RCW 58.17.215, pProcedures and requirements established by this chapter for land divisions shall be applicable to alteration requests, unless such alteration can otherwise be approved as a boundary line adjustment, lot combination, or boundary line correction. Alterations shall comply with applicable conditions of the original land division.
 4. Approval of any alteration which cannot otherwise be approved as a boundary line adjustment, lot combination or boundary line correction shall be approved as a Type II decision for short subdivisions and a Type III decision for subdivisions.

16.13.100 - Powers.

The examiner shall receive and examine available information, conduct public hearings and prepare a record thereof, and enter decisions as provided for herein.

...

- B. Appealable decisions (Type III). The decision of the examiner on the following matters shall be final unless such decision is appealed as provided in section 16.19.170, WAC 173-17-060 (shoreline civil penalties), or chapter 16.21 (shoreline administration); or is appealed in accordance with RCW 90.58.180 (Shorelines Hearings Board appeals):
1. Shoreline substantial development permit, conditional use, and variance permits when the underlying permit requires a hearing; rescission of such permits;
 2. Preliminary plat applications;
 3. Critical area alterations as provided in chapter 17.02;
 4. Site plan review for conditional uses classified as Type III decisions in chapters 17.03 and 16.19;
 5. Planned residential development applications for five (5) or more dwelling units;
 6. Civil penalties associated with shoreline cease and desist orders;

- ~~7. Commercial agriculture zoning verifications;~~
- ~~87. Rezones classified Type III decisions by chapters 17.03 and 16.19; and~~
- ~~98. Critical area variance requests as provided in chapter 17.02B.~~

~~16.13.150 Transition.~~

~~Until new county-wide zoning is enacted to replace the current interim zoning, or December 31, 1984, whichever date is earlier, the examiner, in his/her decisions and recommendations, shall be guided by the following criteria:~~

- ~~A. In case of conflict between the use of density designations in the optimal land use map and the text of the comprehensive plan, the text shall be controlling;~~
- ~~B. In case of conflict between the use or density designations in the optimal land use map and existing interim zoning, the optimal land use map shall be controlling;~~
- ~~C. In case of conflict between the comprehensive plan and any other development regulation of the county, the comprehensive plan shall be controlling; provided that, in all cases where the county seeks to maintain that a conflict exists, the county shall have the burden of demonstrating, to the satisfaction of the examiner, by clear and convincing evidence, that such conflict does in fact exist.~~

17.03.100 - Commercial Agriculture (CA) Zone.

...

- ~~H. Verification of Commercial Agriculture (CA) Zone classification. Parcels classified CA shall be converted to RA, processed as a technical Type IV amendment pursuant to chapter 16.19 with no county permit fee charged the owner if:
 - ~~1. Water rights are not available to the parcel and less than fifty (50) percent of the parcel contains prime soils; or~~
 - ~~2. The parcel contains less than twenty-five (25) percent prime soils; or~~
 - ~~3. The parcel is not farmable due to the critical area regulations contained in chapter 17.02; or~~
 - ~~4. The owner demonstrates that, as of June 2, 1999, the parcel did not meet the designation criteria set forth in subsection D. above.~~~~

~~For 180 days after the effective date of this amendment, if a property owner files a request for a technical amendment to be removed from the CA classification, the county shall, at no cost to the owner complete any necessary studies to verify the presence of prime soils. A technical amendment under this subsection may be processed simultaneously with a zoning amendment filed pursuant to section 17.03.220.~~
