APPLICATION for a
ZONING ORDINANCE INTERPRETATION (ZCI)

Applicability. This application provides a method for clarifying ambiguities in the text of the Island County Zoning Ordinance or classifying uses that are not expressly referenced. Zoning Ordinance Interpretations are used to establish the proper classification of unnamed uses and allow for the formalization of other interpretations that may be required to effectively administer the ordinance. Broad latitude has been provided in the specific uses enumerated in each land use classification. There is no presumption that a use that is not listed is or should be prohibited. Prohibited uses are expressly identified in each zoning district. A request for an interpretation can be initiated by the County or requested by a property owner.

Standards. Interpretations must be consistent with the Island County Comprehensive Plan and the following standards (from ICC 17.03.190.D):

1. No interpretation shall allow the establishment of any use which was previously considered and rejected by the Board.
2. No interpretation shall permit a use otherwise expressly prohibited in the zone.
3. No interpretation shall permit any use in any zone that is inconsistent with the stated purpose of the zone.
4. No interpretation shall permit any use in a particular zone unless such use is substantially similar to other use permitted in such zone considering:
 - a. The activities involved in or equipment or materials employed in the use; and
 - b. The effects of the use on the surrounding area, such as traffic impacts, noise, dust, odors, vibrations, lighting and glare.
5. Any use permitted pursuant to this procedure shall comply with all applicable requirements and standards imposed by the ordinance.
6. Any interpretation must be consistent with the findings adopted by the Board in conjunction with the ordinance.

Review Process. A request for an ordinance interpretation is processed according to the Type II decision process. The Island County Director, or designated staff, reviews the request and issues a decision without holding a public hearing. A Type II decision can be appealed to the Island County Hearing Examiner.

Time Limit. An interpretation remains in effect until it is modified by a subsequent interpretation or ordinance amendment.
